

Shakespeare: A Worldwide Classroom project

莎翁戲劇教室

This year, we are honoured to be a part of the Shakespeare: A Worldwide Classroom project. Throughout these months, students have been devoting themselves to be the scriptwriter, director, actors, actresses and stage managers for this creative play. With their passion and cooperation, the production process of the play is full of surprise and laughter. The innovative version of The Merchant of Venice would be a production which all of us will enjoy. Let's look forward to seeing their fantastic performance!

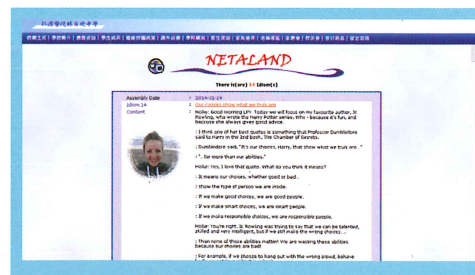

S5 Autograph Collection 中五午膳口語練習

This year, Form five has begun lunchtime autograph sessions, and so far it has been quite successful. At scheduled times, students are given a topic to prepare for (in writing), and practise throughout the week. After they have mastered some new English vocabulary and subject matter, they practise their skills for teachers, Vice Principals and Principal. It focuses on interview skills and communication strategies that students can use in order to prepare for post-secondary studies and the workplace.

Friday Morning Assembly 星期五英語早會分享

Every Friday, our NET, Ms. Hollie, joins two Form 4 students to perform a short speech for Friday Morning Assembly. Every speech teaches us something new, such as an English idiom or quote from a famous author. A colourful sign showing that morning's message is always displayed, and the performance is often meaningful or just plain funny. Afterward, Ms. Hollie uploads the message onto Netaland, the "NET's corner" of our school's website for students' reviewing.

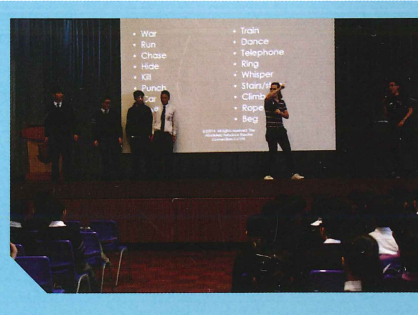

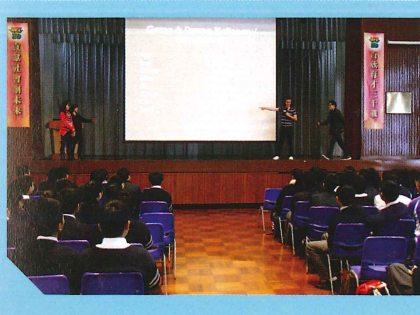

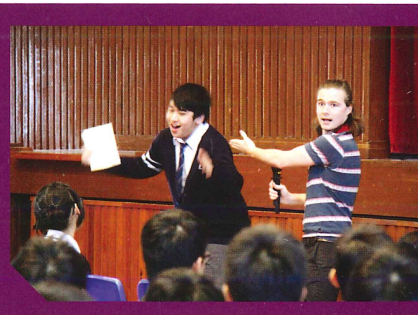

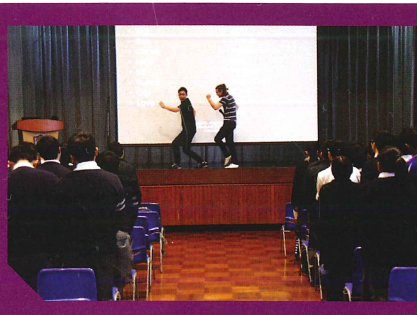

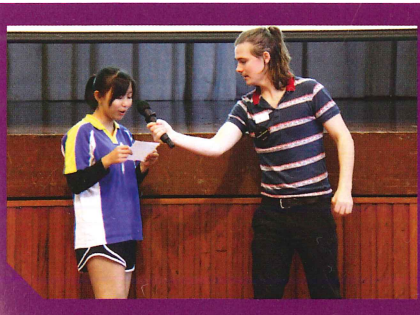

S4 Pre-Drama Workshop: The 39 Steps

中四英語話劇 之觀賞前工作坊

Every year, LPY students take in several English theatre performances, and this year's is a new murder mystery titled The 39 Steps. The Jockey Club 'From Page to Stage' 2014, headed by Scott Wilkins, visited LPY to introduce the play's theme to Form 4 students, as well as teach them some skills and words in English to better prepare them for the live show in Sai Wan Ho Civic Centre.

Students participated by asking and answering questions, as well as taking part in the drama fun. We are all looking forward to watching the play and always welcome Mr. Wilkins back to our school in the hopes he will make us laugh while teaching us about English drama.
