

A VISIT TO RTHK

接受香港電台訪問

We are ready for this eye-opening experience.

Thanks Miss Chan and Mr Bates for taking us to the visit.

Four dedicated members of our own English Campus Reporting Team visited the RTHK radio studios to participate in the popular radio program "Teen Time" on February 27th. The host, Alyson Hau, spoke with our team members Tony Chan (5B), Melissa Cheung (1A), Richelle Mamoyac (1A), and KinKin Lam (1A). The topic was Otaku people* and it led to a spirited and interesting conversation. Our brave LPY students comported themselves quite well and represented the school in a positive way. Following the discussion, the student-participants turned the tables on the popular radio host, and interviewed her! Ms Hau graciously answered all questions, and the experience exceeded everyone's most optimistic expectations.

* Otaku people are those who are extremely interested in things like manga comics and anime.

The show is on air now.

HALLOWEEN-THEMED TONGUE-TWISTER EVENT

Our teachers and student helpers, say cheese to the camera please.

Try a tongue twister and get a candy.

The covered playground is packed with students.

SPELLATHON

We spell the words and candies are our reward.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST

All the participants and the S3 English teachers.

Give a thumb up to the champion Ankie Hui from 3A.

We are honoured to have Miss Chow to be our adjudicator.

FUN DAY (SPONSORED BY WALL STREET ENGLISH)

Come to our counter and try to order your food in English.

It is not easy to hit the ball and name a related word in English at the same time.

We got our prizes from Wall Street English after collecting ten stamps in the booths.

Hurray! We are the student helpers.

We learned the emoji expressions in English.

All of us had a wonderful time.

How would you describe the word 'turkey'?

DRAMA SHOW ROMEO AND JULIET

Meet our MCs Tony Chan from 5B and Sean Lo from 5A.

Our English Ambassadors were given the opportunity to play a part in the show.

The English Campus Reporting Team is doing an interview with the cast members.

Give an applause to our S1 students who demonstrated their wonderful dancing to us.

We all laughed our head off for this funny version of Shakespeare's classic.

S6 JOINT SCHOOL ORAL PRACTICE

中六聯校說話訓練

Our NET Mr Bates is giving us comments and suggestions.

We did the practice as if it were real exams.

LPY students had the opportunity to participate in S6 Joint School Oral Practice at Cumberland Presbyterian Church Yao Dao Secondary School on March 4th. Five schools in all were represented, including two schools from Yuen Long, our school (Go LPY!), one school from Fanling, and one from Tuen Mun. It was a great chance for students to meet new friends, and improve their discussion skills for the upcoming DSE. The event was a great success, largely due to the excellent logistics planning by the hosting school. Everyone participated fully and enthusiastically, and there is no doubt that further practices will be scheduled in future!

We benefited a lot in this morning.
