

2024-2025

English Newsletter

1st Issue

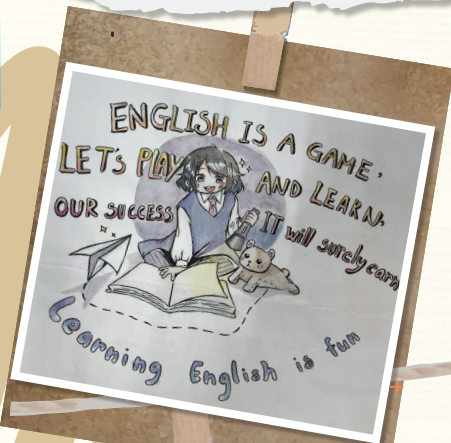

Drawing and Colouring Competition

繪畫及填色比賽

The Drawing and Colouring Competition ignited students' creativity. Participants displayed their artistic talents in two phases. Phase I was Picture Drawing Competition. Phase II was Colouring Competition. We received so many entries. There was an abundance of beautiful pictures, so it was extremely difficult to choose the best one. Too many talented artists!

SOME OF THE AMAZING ARTWORK

I am very grateful to the school for organizing the competition which allowed me to experience the fun of painting.

One of the winners in Phase I Picture Drawing Competition:
Yannis Wong 2A

English Form Activities 英文科級活動

S1 Kahoot Game

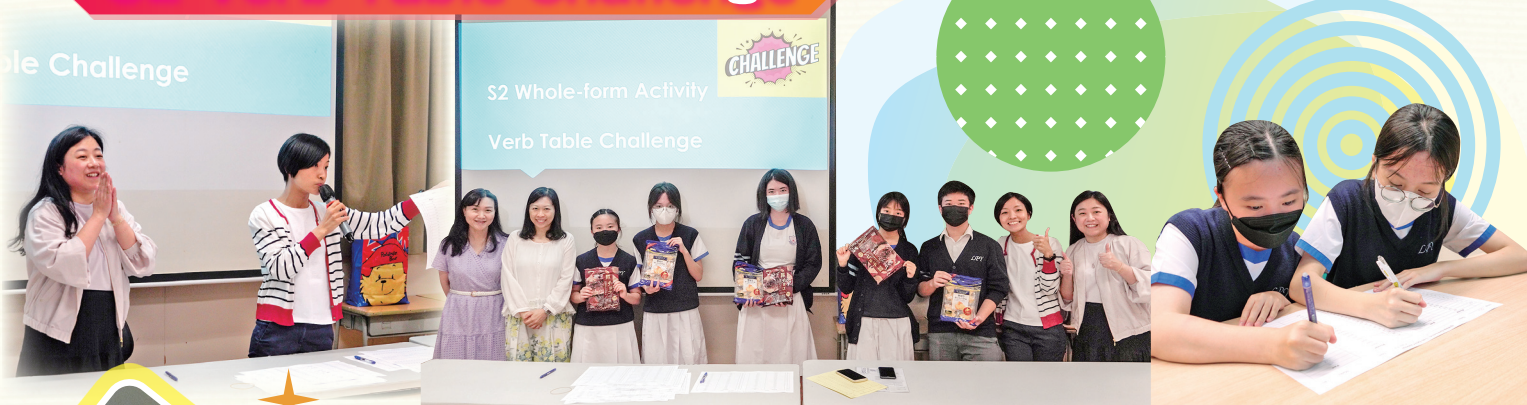

//

The English Department held a series of form activities for students to enjoy. Not only did students have fun participating in them, but they also utilized their English abilities outside of the classroom.

//

S2 Verb Table Challenge

S3 One-minute Presentation Competition

S5 One-minute Response Competition

Thoughts from participants

Hugo Kwong 2D

The Kahoot game was exciting. I enjoyed it so much. I learned a lot of new words.

Sandy Yeung and Jaden Tai 4A

It was such an honorable experience for us to be the emcees. It boosted our confidence. We learned a lot from it.

Meet Our New Teacher

我們的新老師

Hello everyone! I'm Mr. Liu Ho Hei, and I'm so excited to join the LPY family as we embark on this exciting English learning journey together! Born and raised in Hong Kong, I have a deep appreciation for this vibrant city that beautifully blends diverse cultures, creating a unique melting pot of Eastern and Western influences. Learning English is not just about preparing for exams and achieving good grades; it's a lifelong journey filled with discoveries, personal growth, and opportunities. Through this journey, we will explore the richness of language and gain valuable skills that will prepare us well for the future. I look forward to exploring this path with all of you!

Good news in 75th Hong Kong Schools Speech Festival

獲獎消息

Participating in the Speech Festival is a fantastic way to showcase students' English abilities. 2C Poon Wai Lok was awarded the second place in the Public Speaking Solo Competition. Congratulations on a great speech, and representing our school very well.

I would like to thank Mr Calvin for training me to get the second place. He is a great trainer. I had a lot of fun in this Speech Festival.

